BARTON HEIGHTS TANGLE WINNER LOST IN NINTH

Danville Aggregation Took Seccond Game of the Series.

CHARTERS PITCHED

Former Manchesterian Has Spitball Perfect-Phillips's Home Drive.

Charters was the mincement for the Danyille aggregation yesterday, and at critical moments Barton Heights couldn't find his spit-ball. With the score tied the ending of the ninth inning, visitors sent a man over the rubber when Bache fumbled, and the erstwhile when Bache fumbled, and the ersiwhile Virginia-Carolina ballologists pocketed four runs against the three tailies by the home boys.

It was a game that looked exceedingly Barton Heightsky until the seventh inning, when the visitors fell on Winston for two smacks, and this, coupled by an error, a hit batsman and a base on balls, started the boys on the score board to making tailies. Two runs were made in the inning and the eighth inning gave them another taily. McLeavy, who was doing the receiving of Winston's benders, was tapped on the fingers and allowed a ball to escape him. The runner on third earns over.

Poyton Charters, who did the box work yesterday, is a Manchesterian. Ho has pitched ball here in the past, and when the Virginia-Carolina league opened he went with one of the teams. "Down Home" he discovered that wonderful.

Snappy Ball.

But the entire team work of the home boys was better yesterday than the day before. The game was a snappy one until the last innings, and the guesser were busy with the tally cards. Hippy Blount did his better teacher the cards of the property and there share towards the rooting row, and there were a few people who knew he was about. Hippy is a lalker and he confesses to having his domicile on Sheep Hill.

The game opened with McEvoy at the bat. He fanned at three of them and reached first, when Benny failed to close his petals on the third strike. Boone sent one down to Bateman, who fumbled, and both men were safe. Hicks tore off a two-sacker, scoring both men. Phillips's homer in the fourth inning, gave the other run to the Highlanders.

South drove one towards the setting sun in the seventh inning, for the Danvilleites, Powell went out to first, and

LIST OF TEAMS ENTERED

Contest Will Be Most Important of Kind Ever Held in United States.

(By Associated Press.)

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SEAGIRT, N. J., Aug. 23.—The third natural matches of the National Board or the Promotion of Rifle Practice, the twenty-third annual matches of the National Rifle Association of America, and the fourteenth annual matches of the New Jersey State Rifle Association will begin here to-morrow. The tournament, which will be in progress until September 9th, has brought together some of the finest markmen in the country.

The captains of all the teams entered in the National Team Match, the most important military shooting contest everheld in the United States, were in conference at the Range Clubhouse this evening with Brigadier-General William P. Hall, U. S. A., the executive officer in connection with the national competitions. The object of the conference was to settle, if possible, all doubtful points in the construction of the rules, it seems to be settled that there is to be no communication between shooting partners while firing their secres. This is taken to mean that the National Team Match will be practically an individual contest.

The teams entered in the big match are:

The club-house is tested to its utmost capacity. The troops of the regular establishment on duty here brought tentage with them. The camp is therefore, much larger than ever before in the history of the Seagirt Rille Rango.

The meet will be formally opened at 5 o'clock to-morrow mornins. The event scheduled for to-morrow and Friday is the National Individual Matth. The indications are that the contests will not terminate Friday, however, as there are more than five hundred entries.
